Respected Sir,

30/9/18
30/9/18
Amidst the increasing instances of violence and anxiety, it is pertinent that the UNO calls up on the world community to commit itself, to the path of nonviolence by celebrating the 'International Day of Nonviolence' on October 02, the day of Gandhi Jayanti.

30/9/18
We appeal to the nation, particularly the Heads of the States, the Ministries and Departments and their executive arms to organize various programme that day to remind the people, particularly the youth, of the culture of inclusive oneness.

30/9/18
I will be grateful if you kindly write to the Ministers, Secretaries, Youth Departments, Universities and their social arms (NCC, NSS) in the state to organize this day elaborately, especially among youth.

30/9/18
An appeal letter from Gandhi Research Foundation, Jalgaon, with suggested programme is given herewith for your perusal.

Considering the urgency for a culture of nonviolence in the society, I am confident that your august office undertakes this programme. Special attention may be given to 'Nonviolence Pledge' that can be administered at all levels on that day.

As global community is getting ready to celebrate the 150 birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhiji, it is fitting that we promote Nonviolence on this occasion and through round-the-year programme till Oct. 2019.

With warm regards.

Sincerely,

Justices C.S. Dharmadhikari,

Chairman

Appeal to Commemorate

International Day of Nonviolence

The United Nations General Assembly has declared October 02 as 'International Day of Nonviolence' in 2007. This day is dedicated to preserve and promote the culture of nonviolence, mutual appreciation among communities and safeguard fundamental rights: freedom, justice, equality, opportunity, the spirit of democracy and secularism as well as to cultivate among individuals aptitude for inclusive living and respect for diversity, by means of social education and other expressions.

When the world suffers widespread political terror, when individualism is glorified as virtue, when lifestyle driven ecological calamity threatens us with extinction, when instance of violence deemed as infotainment, it is imperative on us to rededicate us for the promotion of sane lifestyle, oneness, sharing and mutuality. International Day of Nonviolence offers an occasion for this rededication.

Suggested Programme for nonviolence week

You may declare the week (Sep. 29 – Oct. 04) as Week of Nonviolence; organize a range of programme each day. The programme may focus on 'communal harmony', 'unity in diversity', 'inclusivism', social justice, youth empowerment, rural development, sustainable environment, human rights and individual responsibility... These themes may be deliberated in the form of essay writing, poem recitation, elocution, debate, quiz, artistic / stage expressions, public exhibitions, demonstrations, documentary screening...

This year being 150th birth anniversary of Gandhiji as well as Kasturba Gandhiji, the nation celebrates the occasion as "Ba-bapu 150".

You may also organize, this year, commemoration programmes.

1. Adopt a village and help them achieve comprehensive transformation.
2. Organize total sanitation programme in a locality.
3. Organize de-addiction campaign among youth.
4. Initiate watershed management, particularly rainwater harvesting in villages.
5. Organize value education in rural schools

Note: For further details or programme clarification you may contact GANDHI RESEARCH FOUNDATION or MUMBAI SARVODAYA MANDAL; for resource materials you may visit the web sites <http://www.gandhifoundation.net/>; or <http://www.mkgandhi.org/gposter/gposter.htm>

The above is a suggestive programme schedule, you may choose themes to suit your scheme of celebration.

As the global community is getting ready to celebrate the 150 birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhiji, it is fitting that we take up the cause of Nonviolence now and continue it as round-the-year programme till Oct. 2019.

You may also administer to the youth the 'Pledge of Nonviolence'.

Pledge for Nonviolence and Peace:

On this 'International Day of Nonviolence', we join the people of the world, to take this solemn Pledge that:

- We shall uphold peace in the world, between individuals and communities;
- We shall uphold a harmonious life with nature;
- We shall uphold truth and justice without fear or prejudice;
- We shall practice mutual love and nonviolence in our personal and social life;
- We shall respect all human beings equally regardless of race, creed, country, religion, language or gender;
- We shall work for the elimination of all instruments and weapons of violence;
- We shall not support or resort to violence and intolerance under any circumstances;
- We shall endeavour to resolve all differences through dialogue and constitutional means;
- And,
- We shall endeavor with all our might for a world of Peace and harmony, Justice and equality, love and oneness.
